CROWDS ANXIOUS TO HEAR EVIDENCE

Illinois Senate White Slave Investigating Committee at Work.

MINISTERS IN NET.

Thrilling Scenes When Officers Make Descent Upon Fashioiable Chicago Dance Halls.

Chicago, April 12.—Crowds fought today to obtain admission to the Red Room of the Hotel La Salle when the Illinois Senate White Slave Investigating Committee resumed its sessions.

Expectations that dozens of socifashionable loop district cafes early ety revelers, caught in the raid on fashnonable loop district cafes early today would be forced to testify was the attraction. In the big throng that jammed the lobby of the hotel were men and women of prominence, who themselves escaped the net of the investigators. They hung back evidently fearing they would be recognized and forced to the stand.

Meanwhile, a dozen women, redeyed from a night of weeping and as many of their male escorts, nervously watching the crowd in the lobby below, waited outside the door of the committee room to near the decision of the probers. Senators were late in arriving, and not until all had gathered, Lieut. Governor O'Hara announced he would determine whether persons captundd early today would be questioned.

Several dance hall proprietors, owners of hotels that were under suspicion and managers of cafes in the old red light district had expected to testify today.

Spectacular raids on two fashionable downtown cafes early today threw several hundred midnight revelers into panic and brought in a score of witnesses from the so-called "society" element.

Cafe guests, faces flushed with wine, were intercepted as they whirled and glided in the "tango" or "turkey trotted" to the seductive and dreamy music, served with subpoenas by special investigators for the committee and hurried away to the Hotel La Salle to tel what part the fast life plays in the social evil.

Cabaret singers were ordered to don something more than pink silk tights and appear before the committee at once. Managers of Rectors and the States the two loop district cafes that were raided, were likewise served.

Two married women, from Peoria, Ill., on an automobile slumming tour, went into hysterics when investigators ordere dthem with their male companions, to climb into an automobile and speed to the hotel La Salle. A woman member of another slumming party leaped thruogh the window at the Cafe of Roy Jones, Wabash Avenue and 21st street near the old segregated district.

Women in cafes and red light districts all night restaurants fell on their knees and begged the investigators to permit them to go. Men waved handfulls of bills and pleaded to be given their freedom. And officers, who aided the investigators, blocking doors held back hysterical, weeping, curnig crowds while the probers hurried witnesses into automobiles and off to the room where the hearing was held.

Four male guests at Rector's whose names were suppresed are said to be a capitalist, a manufacturer a stock roker,and a member of the Chicago Board of Trade.

The committee was informed today that four other guests in Rector's were clergymen. They were seated at a table reserved for an informal supper of clergymen, lawyers, an da physician who nightly attended the cabaret performances in this fashionable restaurant. The senators said that to summon these men and make public their names would create "unnecessary scandal."

Herndon, Pa.—The favors given at a dinner by H. S. Byery to his six children were half a dozen checks for $1,000 each.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

President Wilson, in talking with his friends yesterday in regard to the Anti-Japanese alien land legislation pending in California, gave the impression that he is not worrying much over the prospect of trouble with the Japanese government arising from it. The President sees no necessity for the administration taking any steps in reference to the legislation immediately and his disposition is to watch developments.

The President holds that the Japanese government in protesting against legislation against the holding of property by Japanese in California, are demanding for its citizens privleges in the United States, which are declined to citizens of this country in Japan .

Rather than play what he terms "ecclesiastical ragtime," or high church music, selected by the rector, the Rev. E. L. Travers, for services in fashionable "Old Trinity" Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., Walter E. Hall, the organist for the last sixteen years, has resigned. Mr. Travers comes from the military academy at West Point. It is said that he not only atttempts to, but actually does, choose the music for Old Trinity, which is contrary to all precedent."

After his body, supposedly dead, had been in a casket ready for burial for more than twenty-four hours, C. L. Hull, of Kansas City, Mo., "came to life" in an undertaking establishment in New Orleans yesterday and began yelling lustily. Hull is a pine timber expert and is employed by the Sarah Lumber Company, at Bayou Sara, La., as a timber cruiser and estimator. He was struck by a falling tree while at work, and to all appearances instantly killed. Doctors who examined Hull immediately after his outcries had resulted in the reopening of the casket, said that Hull had received a blow at the base of the brain which resulted in temporary complete paralysis and suspension of all signs of animation. They declared after their examination that there is no reason why Hull should not completely recover.

The Chinese declaration of independence, which took the form of an address to the world, was cabled to Washington from Peking yesterday, and after being read at the cabinet meeting was made public. State Department officials declared that it reflected the influence of the young Chinese members who have been educated in American colleges. The President and his cabinet praised it enthusiastically, and formal recognition of the republic by the United States awaits only the actual organization of the constituent assembly, which meets again today at Peking.

While William Dato, the 18-year-old son of a photographer, and Samuel Lonzette, his friend, were engaged in a mock duel in the Dato studio yesterday, a revolver which Lonzette was flourishing and which he supposed to be unloaded, was accidentally discharged, the bullet entering his companion's head. Dato died shortly afterward. Lonzette, panic-stricken, fled, and had not been found at a late hour last night by the police.

Mrs. M. Benjamin, aged 18 and Sam Jacobs, aged 29, fought with knives in the woman's home at Fort William, Ont., yesterday. Both are in the hospital, the woman with a gash in the abdomen and the man with 13 wounds in his chest and stomach. There is little chance for either. Mrs. Benjamin claims that Jacobs attacked her.

For bloodying the nose of his sweetheart, Miss Laura Bent, daughter of Judge James A. Bent, a prominent attorney, Thursday evening, S. Dule Ashford, of Washington, D. C., was sentenced yesterday to pay a fine of $10 and costs or serve 40 days in jail at Elkins, W. Va., Young Ashford liquidated the fine. Ashford is a student at Davis and Elkins College. The quarrel occurred on a principal street of the city, and attracted an unusual crowd, occurring as it did, just as afire slarm sounded. The blow on the nose, according to the young woman's testimony, was the culmination of Ashford's insistence that he be permitted to accompany her to a party. Ashford claimed that purely by accident he had hit her with his arm, wrist, or hand in attempting to ward off a blow from her.

DEMOCRATS AND FREE SUGAR ISSUE

Test of Strength of Opponents of President Wilson's Policy.

SIX PLANS TO REVISE.

Fight Likely to Continue All Summer—Southern Cane Growers Exercised Over Measure.

Washington, April 12.—Cost of filling sugar bowls in millions of American homes was at stake today when the House Democrats resumed their caucus on the Underwood tariff bill. Real warfare among the Democrats began, and initial test of strength of opponents of President Wilson's tariff revision policy. The fight over the sugar schedule promised to continue all day.

Six different proposals to revise the sugar duties were before the caucus. Rep. Broussard, of Louisiana, representing the can sugar interests, had four amendments, all reducing the present sugar tariff but none providing such a deep slashing as fixed in the Underwood bill. Broussard proposed a sliding scale reduction, of 37 1-2 cent a hundred weight upon the passage of the bill and furtheir reduction aggregatingly 62 cents per hundred pounds by 1916, with a duty of 97 of 1 per cent. per pound after that time. Broussard, as an alternative proposed to put sugar on the free list in four or five years, instead of in three as provided in the Underwood bill.

Free sugar at once was the proposal of Representative Hardwick, of eighty votes was the predicted strength which would be mustered by the sugar protectionists against the administration sugar revision program. Party leaders declared today, however, that while this number of Democrats might vote against the sugar reduction in caucus, not over a score will openly oppose the bill where it pases the House.

Majority Leader Underwood declared today that it would be impossible to finish consideration of the bill in caucus for another week and that it would probably be April 21 before its consideration in the House can begin. He will not "gag" debate in the caucus or rush the Democrats in their consideration of the bill, believing ample debate in caucus will expedite its passage in the House.

Thath the tariff fight in the Senate will only be well begun by mid-summer and that it will extend well into September, was the intimation given today by Senator Williams of Mississippi, veteran tariff expert among the Democratic members of the finance committee.

"All this talk about our having settled anything in the committee is wrong," he insisted. "We are simply going over the schedule in a preliminary way and the members are making suggestions as to amendments which they may propose. It is extremely likely, I should say, that the end of the tariff debate in the Senate will not come before some time in September."

Through a misunderstanding the Democratic members of the Senate committee did not meet this morning. They decided to get together, however this afternoon.

MEETING OF COMMITTEE.

Arguments for Urging Council to Erect New High School Building.

Notwithstanding the rain, the members of the committees representing the labor and fraternal organizations of the city turned out in considerable numbers last night at the meetnig scheduled to take place in the rooms of the Trades Council, for the purpose of making arrangements for the hearing before the finance and school committees of the City Council on the question of the erection of a new high school. The matter was gone thoroughly into, and many of these present discussed the question of the need of a new high school.

Those taking part in the discussion were R. M. Prettyman, J. W. Collins, C. E. Remington, G. K. Bender, C. A. Bladen, W. R. Studds, G. N. Cradlin, O. H. Daniels, and R. H. Wright.

It was announced by Chairman Colvin that H. K. Field, chairman of the joint committees on finance and schools of the City Council, had definitely decided on next Thursday night in the chamber of the Common Council as the time and place for the hearing. It is believed that a large number of interested persons, other than the members of the committees appointed for this purpose, will be present at that time.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

Young Alexandrian Convicted of Destroying Woman's Preporty.

John Hamilton, a young man of this city, was brought before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of entering the room of Blanche Hamilton on north Lee street last night and cutting up a pair of shoes and carrying off a watch.

The complainant, in her statement, said she had been endeavoring to break off relations with the defendant and had been threatened by him. Last night, she alleges, he proceeded to her room, destroying her shoes an carried her watch away.

The man, in answer to the woman's charges, alleged, that he, too, had been anxious to cease his attentions to the woman, and acknowledged that he cut the shoes and took the watch, but asserted that he purchased the articles and gave them to the complainant.

Justice Caton imposed a fine of $50 upon the accused. Should he not pay that sum he will be sent to work on the roads for three months.

PREPARING FOR FLY CRUSADE.

War on Insect to Comence in About Ten Days.

In about ten days the city health department, under the direction of Dr. E. A. Gorman, city health officer, will commence the annual fly crusade. In order to handle this work successfully and accomplish as much or more than was done last year funds must be supplied, and cash contributions will be welcomed by the department. All persons who wish to help in this good work are urged to send their contributions to the health department as early as possible, as the city make sno special appropriation for carrying on the fly crusade which must be supported by private contributions.

Dr E. A. Gorman, wishes to acknowledge receipt of cash contributions from the following: C. C. Smoot Sons & Co., $50; Gardner Boothe, $5; National Fruit Product Co., $5; Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company, $5.

The paste board fly boxes used by the children were last year supplied by the George P. Killian Paper Box Company, of Washington, who will likely supply them this year. These boxes are to be left at all grocery stores or other shops in the city where the children can get them whenever desired. Merchants who desire a supply of these boxes, which are furnished free, are requested to notify the health department.

From the large number of letters of encouragement received by the health office this season from persons who are in sympathy with the work accomplished during the fly crusade, speak o fthe great good accomplished last year. It is certain that the crusade this year will be even a grater success than last year.

PEACE SEEMS AS FAR AWAY AS EVER

Allies Strive to Avert Internal Strife and Trouble With Powers.

ABANDON THE SIEGE.

Formal Demand of Bulgaria For Salonika Refused by Greeks—Situation Complicated.

Vienna, April 12—Peace in the Balkans today seemed as far away as ever. The allies seem to be neglecting Turkey, their common enemy, in their internal strifes and their efforts to keep out of a wrangle with the great powers. Dispatches from Sofia today said that the Bulgarians were preparing to back up their demands for Salonika by force of arms. The Bulgarians made formal demands for the city which were refused by the Greeks.

All of the Servian troops have withdrawn from the siege of Scutari, and are on their way home, according to Belgrade advices. It is hinted in Cettinje that the Servians were scared off by the international blockade of Montenegro by the Powers.

With Montenegro and Servia in acrimonious debate and Bulgaria and Greece at each other's throats, the Turks are said to be getting ready for another desperate assault on the Bulgarians along the Chatalja lines.

The Montenegrin situation is the most complicated in Europe just now. Regardless of the naval blockade by all the powers and the land blockade by Austria-Hungary, the soldiers of King Nicholas today, were still before Scutari, threatening another assault.

The most picturesque figure in the entanglement is Nicholas. He has everything to gain and nothing to lose and is taking all sorts of chances. His tiny kingdom is pauperized anyway, and worth little if he fails to get the added territory for which he is fighting. He has got all he wants out of the country and stands ready to abdicate in favor or King Peter of Servia, if he loses his fight for Scutari, and always there is the hope that the powers will pay him to quit.

PROGRAM ALMOST COMPLETE.

Noted Speakers Are Expected For Meetings of Women in Alexandria.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, president of the National Council of Women, will leave tonight for a hurried trip to New York in connelction with the meting of the executive meeting of the Council here next week. The program is now practically complete and some of the most noted women in America will speak in Alexandria.

Miss Julia Lathrop, head of the Children's Bureau and Miss American, will be two of the ladies on the program and Senator Works will be another attraction.

The meeting of the association will not be large in point of numbers as there will be only one delegate from each of the National Associations, but each delegate represents thousands of women in that particular organization.

One of the features of the program will be the visit of the visitors to Christ Church and to the Alexandria-Washington Masonic Lodge. Mrs. Louis Scott, chairman of the latter portion of the program, has arranged with S. W. Pitts, worshipful master of the Lodge to have a delegation of the members escort the ladies from the church to the lodge room where Geo. W. Zachary ,the custodian, will explain the relics.

FT. ORANGE POULTRY SHOW.

Several local poultry and dog fanciers have received letters from the secretary of the Fort Orange Poultry Kennel and Pet Stock Association, inviting them to exhibit at the show which the association will hold at Albany, N Y., in November. If Alexandria is to have a poultry and pet stock show this fall it would seem feasable to undertake the planning of such an event early this spring so that as large a number of entries as possible be secured and plenty of time be given for advertising the show. The Albany show is considered the largest and most prosperous show in the New England states, but never was very successful it is reported, until the show committee included pet stock, dogs and cats as well as poultry and pigeons in their annual exhibition.

To The Democratic Voters of Alexandria:

Your attention is called to the fact that your poll taxes must be paid on or before May 3rd, 1913, in order that you may vote in the general election on November 4th, and the primaries prior to that date.

POPE SUFFERS RELAPSE TODAY

Physicians Summoned Hastily to Vatican—Recurrence of Influenza.

PONTIFF HAS FEVER.

Present Condition Result of Disobeying Physicians and Holding Conference Yesterday.

Rome, April 12.—Pope Pius suffered a relapse late this afternoon.

Drs. Marchiafava and Amici and papal physicians, summoned hastily to the Pope's sick room in the Vatican, found the Pontiff suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis and a recurrence of influenza.

Immediately after it became known that the oPpe had suffered a relapse Prof. Marchiafava issued an official bulletin, in which he diagnosed the Pontiff's condition as a recurrence of influenza complicated by bronchitis. Though the Pope had considerable fever, the physician insisted that his condition was not serious.

The doctor's said that the Pope's condition was due to over-exertion caused by his insistance on receiving bishops last night and this morning, in violation of their orders.

In the weakened condition of his nervous system and heart, and in view of his advanced age, the doctors feared the results of the coughing brought on by the bronchial attack.

Though perceptibaly weaker Pope Pius was said to be considerably better today, refreshed by a night of unbroken sleep. There was no recurrence of fever and his pulse was nearer the normal than at any time since the relapse of influenza. The physicians, on their visits of the day, found, however, that the kidney affection has not been eradicated.

When Pope Pius last night received audience of three bishops in his sick room, it was rumored about the Vatican that he did it without the knowledge of his physicians. Both Prof. Marchiafava and Dr. Amici were absent at the time and it was said that they severely reprimed his holiness for disobeying their orders. After he confered his blessing on the bishops, who fell on the floor at his feet and left the chamber weeping, the Pope went into a deep sleep, exhausted by the unusual exertion.

The sisters of the Pope when they let the Vatican today were more cheerful that yesterday and it was learned that Angelo Sarto had been told that he might return to his village postoffice.

The Pope's disinclination to eat and his refusal to obey orders gives his doctors grave concern.

DETECTIVE IS DISMISSED.

P. A. Belton Convicted of Unbecoming Conduct.

Richmond, Va., April 12.—Sergeant Peter A. Belton was discharged from the service yesterday afternoon when convicted by the police board of being intoxicated and disorderly on board the Old Dominion steamer on which he was bringing a negro prisoner to this city from Norfolk Jan. 20. of this year.

The commissioners are said to have felt that anything short of dismissal would have weakened the strict discipline they are striving to maintain.

Belton was intoxicated when he boarded the steamer with Elijah Gray, a negro, who subsequently was convicted of felonious assault and sentenced to two years on the roads, according to witnesses. The Captain denied him permission to enter the stateroom he had engaged, and Belton and the prisoner spent the night on deck.

At one time the detective became so obstreperous the captain threatened to put him in irons during the balance of the trip, one witness testified.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

LIFTS "LID" IN NORFOLK.

Soda Water And Ice Cream May be Sold And Delivered on Sunday.

Norfolk, Va., April 12.—The decision of Judge Hanckel in the Sunday selling case tried as a test action in the Corporation Court Thursday seemed to be received by the public as a practical conclusion of the Sunday selling prosecutions, though there are a number of other cases pending an appeal and these will be brought to trial by Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Tilton on their respective merits.

The next trials of the Sunday cases are expected to occur on April 16 in the Corporation Court. Those interested in these cases seem to feel that the instructions by Judge Hanckel to the jury which passed upon Thursday's case determines at least a large majority of the recent police court convictions and that these cases now pending on appeal will be dismissed when brought to trial.

It seems that the court's ruling, which was very broad, will permit not only the resumption of the sale of soda wate r,soft drinks, and tobacco in drug stores on Sunday, but will also permit a resumption of the sale of ice cream and the delivery of the same to Norfolk homes on the Sabbath.

It may be that under the Hanger case in Portsmouth, in which it was decided that the sale of soda water and tobacco alone on Sunday was in violation of the law, those places in Norfolk which have heretofore kept open on Sunday simply for the sale of these things will not be permitted to do so.

Again it is acording to some that the store keepers attempt to keep open on Sunday simply for the sale of such wares, etc., they must observe Monday in the week as Sunday and close on this day.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

Richmond, April 12.—While her mother was away from home Thursday afternoon little Hazel Phaup, 6 years old, granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Turner, of Glendale, Henroco county, was burned to death at Reams' station, Dinwiddie county, where her parents live.

Little Hazel, who was a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Phaup, was playing in the yard of her parents' home when her clothing caught fire and she was entirely enveloped in flames being badly burned from her head to her feet. Her frightened companions could give no relief and only screamed for help.

The child's father is a widely-known Methodist minister, while her mother was formerly Miss Mary T. Turner, of Henrico county. Besides her parents, little Hazel leaves five sisters.

Young Man Kills His Wife.

Everett Davis, a young clerk, seized a shotgun and shot his wife, Nellie Norman Davis, to death yesterday morning at her mother's home, at Northview, a suburb of Clarksburg, W. Va., and then walked to the police station when voluntarily surrendered. He expressed regret in his cell that he did not kill her alleged paramour. Then and voluntarily surrendered. He because he was infurlated to the point of madness over seeing another man run out of his wife's room when he entered. He names as the paramour a young man who had been employed at a Nickelodeon in Clarksburg, and who, he says, he found with his wife in the bedroom of their home several days ago. This resulted in a separation, and Mrs. Davis went to her parents' home, at Northview. Davis went there yesterday morning, he says, to get a suit case and clothing before departing for his former home in Cumberland, Md. The young man named as the paramour cannot be found by the authorities and it is believed that he has fled from the city.

TO ENTERTAIN IN RUINS.

Old Church Structure in Princess Anne County to be Rebuilt.

Norfolk, Va., April 12.—Rev. Richard J. Alfriend, rector, and Judge B. D. White, chairmen of the building committee have received the new and revised plans for the restoration of Old Dominion church in Princess Anne county.

The plans call for the building up of the alls with the use of the present ruins, the old walls that now stand to be added to and built upon. Old-fashioned doors and windows just as those in the original church are provided for, and it is aimed to rebuild old Donation church just as it was formerly as far as this is possible to do.

The specifications will be in hand from the architects, Neff and Thompson, next week, and the contract will be let as soon as bids can be asked. It is hoped to have the roof on the church building by June.

Bishop A.M. Randolph ,of the diocese of Southern Virginia, will ,on the fourth Sunday in April, confirm the first clas sat Old Danotion church to be confirmed in sixty years. The class will consist of about thirty candidates.

A most attractive entertainment was given in the ruins of the church last night by Norfolk talent. Some of the best talent assisted. The entertainment begun at 7 p. m.

RETURN TO WORK MONDAY.

Chesapeake And Ohio Shopmen Will Resume Work Next Week.

Richmond, April 12.—Chesapeake and Ohio shopmen, laid off about a week ago because of lack of work and the floods in the West, which put some of the lines of the road out of business, will take up their labors on Monday morning, the men to work fifty hours a week.

This is welcome news to the thousands of men who are employed in the shops of the system, and while it is ten hours a week less than they had been working, it is believed that within a short time the men will all be working full time on the entire system.

It will take sometime to recover from the effects of the terrible floods the roads have experienced, and enormous sums of money will be required to make the repairs to the roadbeds, the stations, the tracks, the bridges and the rolling stock.

The men were delighted when the notice was posted to the effect that the men are to resume work next Monday. They are high-class mechanics, have their homes here, get good pay and constitute a thrifty and valuable citizenship.

Fredericksburg, Va.—Much interest is shown in the State Sunday-School Convention, which will meet in the Baptist Church here April 25. Over 300 delegates are expected.

MEMORIES OF OTHER DAYS.

The announcement in yesterday's Gazette that Trinity M. E. Church will shortly celebrate its 139th anniversary brought many reminiscences to the minds of some now in the sere and yellow leaf who were cotemporaneous with hundreds prominent in that organization in past years who have passed over that river, without a bridge, into the haven upon which their hearts were fixed during their earthly pilgrimage.

It would be interesting to all old Alexandrians to peruse the rolls of Trinity Chuch during the past century, as they would encounter the names of many representative citizens who in their time played prominent parts in our city's history.

William Berkley, Thomas Davy, Allen Harmon, J. C. Clark, John Baggett, C. A. Ware, George C. Hewes, I. C. O"Neal, Hezekiah Patton and Hezekiah Ward, are but a corporal's guard of the many who have paid the debt of nature.

Methodism was camparatively in its infancy when a church was established in Alexandria. The meeting house was in the rear of the present parsonage of St. Mary's Church, and at that time ecclesiastical structures were by no means as pretentious buildings as in our day.

At that time and for many years later class meetings were prominent features in Alexandria. These gatherings were generally in private houses and in charge of leaders. They were regarded as essentials to spiritual growth. All took part either in prayers, singing or exhortation. The experience feature was regarded as especially refreshing, as member encouraged member in the pilgrimage wards the other world.

The class meeting of the olden time has given the place to other features in our day, but their recollection often affords pleasant musing to such as are now nearing the last mile post of life.

CITIES PAYING EXPENSES OF CERTAIN COUNTIES.

It having been plainly set forth that the burden of taxation in the State of Virginia is borne by cities and that many counties in the commonwealth are being supported by the former is naturally bringing forth indignation from every municipality in the Old Dominion. Richmond is working strenuously to bring out every voter in that city in order to add its power and influence towards an adjustment of this matter.

It is alleged that while property in cities is assessed in an equable manner, in some counties in the state real and personal property is appraised in a nominal manner, and the owners have but small amounts to pay towards keeping up the state government.

The Richmond News Leader contains a lengthy arraignment in the shape of wholesale indictment against the present order of things. The following paragraphs are taken from it:

Commonwealth of Virginia, Outraged Counties and Cities to-wit:

In the great court of common justice of the said counties and cities, the tax-payers of the Commonwealth of Virginia and for the body of the outraged counties and cities and now attending the court of justice and equity, upon their oaths present;

That the tax laws of comonwealth of Virginia are a disgrace to a civilized people, an insult to the honesty of decent men, a bare-faced denial of fundamental righteousness, confiscation the most brazen and injustice the most profound in this:

That honest men in the outraged counties and cities of the Commonwealth bear their own heavy burdens of government, meet their assessments, pay their taxes, yet are forced to pay for courts, schools, pensions and roads for counties which fraudulently and consistenly refuse to deal justly with their sister counties and cities:

That legitimate business must suffer because a grasping statute unreasonably exacts an unfair proportion of honest profits;

That those who are mindful to their oaths and obedient to law suffer for their probity while the laws of the Commonwealth put a premium upon perjury and reward a lie;

That citizens holding one class of property are forced to pay three times the taxes often paid by owners of others classes of property of like value, thanks to a ruthless law which boldly demands full tribute of rectitude but allows local self-interest to protect dishonesty.

That the widow and the orphan, wards of the state and possessing a pittance in the hands of trustees, are forced to pay more than one-third of their living in taxes, while the favored citizens of tax-dodging counties pay less than five per cent. of their earnings;

That a senseless statute, the fruit of grasping fraud, twice taxes the mortgaged property and overburdens the thrifty man who would borrow to save or to better his estate;

That bankers who would loan to increase prosperity, must pay on every dollar of his capital, surplus and the undivided profits, while the owner of real estate in the offending counties protests if his assessment is more than twenty per cent. of the value of his property.

That in no two counties and in no two cities are the same provisions of the same law construed in the same manner and to a like end of equality and justice;

That the arm of the state's officers are not strengthened to enforce the law, while local officers dependent upon county influence and the creatures of their constituents are empowered to defeat the law, to reward their friends and to punish their enemies, regardless alike of law and honor;

That worthy commissioners and honest assessors are unreasonably burdened in that there is none to guide them, none to uphold them;

That the relentless enforcement of unjust statutes threatens the stability of the business world, pinches the poor and may drive from the Commonwealth those whose wealth spells prosperity to hundreds.

And that while our citizens toil in the cities and wrestle with the soil, making the barren places blossom and building up th eold waste, while they labor to seal Justice, while they strive to make a fairer Commonwealth for those unborn, they are barred from progress and thwarted in their work because where government first touches man and where above all the state should be honest, we find robbery, fraud and injustice against the peace and dignity of the commonwealth.

Major James E. King, of the Alexandria National Bank, is ill in the Garfield Hospital, Washington.

Harry Fleischmann, who was able to leave his room last week after a two months' illness is again confined to his room.

Miss Lyda Lengert, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. J. A. Eggborn, in Duke street.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The body of J. Pierpont Morgan lies among the art treasures of his private library in New York. It reached New York on the steamer France in a driving rain yesterday afternoon and at dusk was taken from the ship's mortuary chapel, somber in heavy velvet and resplendent in silver and gold, to a motor hearse, which conveyed it from the pier to the library. Hundreds braved the drenching rain and stood in the streets to watch it pass. Among the rare bronzes, costly paintings, and other objects which he brought from Europe the body of the dead financier will lie in state until Monday morning, when the funeral services will be held in St. eorge's Protestant Episcopal Church.

Declaring that he could walk on the water like Christ, a third-class passenger, aboard the steamship St. Paul, named Duro, jumped overboard in Mid-Atlantic. He was rescued, but died of shock, and was buried at sea.

BACK IN THE BOYHOOD DAYS.

Sing me the songs that I loved in the past,
Back ni the boyhood days,
Tell me the stories which I have heard last,
Back in the boyhod days,
Bring back the times when no storm-cloud or shower,
Nor moments of sorrow or grief had the power
To long damp the joys of childhood's glad hour,
Back in the boyhood days.

Bring back the faces I long ago knew,
Back in the boyhood days,
Give me the sweetheart whose friendship was true,
Back in the boyhood days,
Bring back the times when the low sinking sun
Ended the days spent in innocent fun,
When life's daily struggles had not yet begun,
Back in the boyhood days.

Call back the memory of those I have loved,
Back in the boyhood days,
Their friendships were treasured their loyalty proved,
Back in the boyhood days,
Oh, carry me back to the times when no care
Could make the days dark or the flowers less fair,
For life was so sweet and so happy back there,
Back in the boyhood days.

Those girls looked very pretty at the church bazaar, and their costumes were singularly appropriate; clean and white, with their hearts on their sleeves.

Now that the season is about over the moth balls are going to find their lives not altogether without usefulness. Better put 'em away, boys, or they'll be a sight next winter.

The robin is dressed in his waist coat of red,
The thrush is arrayed in her best
The blue-jay is gorgeous, the woodpecker's head
Is as red as the sun in the west.

They are all gotten up in their very best style,
For the spring-time is with us again,
It's strange, but the birds seem to find it worth while,
To imitate women and men.

A HEARTLESS WORLD.

(Communicated.)

A good prayer for mankind would be: "Help us O, Lord, to rise above the sordid, the mean and the petty. Let us be large in word, thought and deed, and, best of all, let us not be unkind." Small boys have a disagreement and settle it. Girls, true to their feminine heritage, knock each other when the back is turned. Women, it is true, are more harshly judged than men, and the fault is mostly with themselves. How many, I wonder, say a good word when the low whisper of a dark suspicion of a fellow sister reaches the ear? How many reflecting on their own weaknesses, have the strength to put in an excuse or a word of pity for a wrong-doer? How many rather turn their heads when they pass her on the street, thus forcing her lower through sheer pride. Instead, they welcome the whisper as a new breath of gossip, they express their intense disapproval, they elevate their eyebrows in astonishment, that such a world can be, and that such people can be harbored in it. These are very fitting lines in connection with the above:

When over the fair fame of friend or foe
The shadow of disgrace shall fall; instead
Of words of blame, or proof of thus and so
Let something good be said.

Forget not that no fellow-being yet
May fall so low but love may lift her head,
Even the cheek of chance with tears is wet
If something good be said.

No person's heart may vainly turn aside
In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead,
But may awaken strong and glorified
If something good be said.

And so, I charge thee, by the thorny crown,
And by the cross on which our Master bled,
And by your own soul's hope of fair renown,
Let something good be said.

Vienna, April 12.— Special dispatches here indicates a split in the Sebro-Montenegrin coalition attacking Scutari.

A report from Cettinje asserted that he carelessness of the Servians was responsible for the recent heavy Montenegrin losses before Scutari. CHARGED WITH BANK FRAUDS.

Three Members of Musica Family Are Arraigned.

New York, April 12.—Three members of the Musica family, Phillip, Arthur and George, were arraigned today before Judge Grain on eight indictments charging international bank frauds by which the family of hair importers are alleged to have netted more than $1,000.00. The father, Antonio, was not taken to court as he was reported to be in a dying condition from heart disease in the hospital at the Tombs.

Attorney George Gordon Battle entered a plea of not guilty for the three sons and succeeded in getting the court to fix $5,000 bail for the elder Musica, and $20,000 for George, the youngest son, 15 years old. No bail was fixed for the two older sons. Trial was set for a week.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE FEARED.

Congressmen Glass Think it May Result in Giving Negroes Votes.

The fear of giving the ballot to irresponsible negroes is causing some Southern Congresemn to withhold support from the proposed constitutional amendment giving women the right to vote.

This attitude was made plain yesterday by a letter which Congressman Carter Glass, of Virginia, is sending out in reply to the hundreds of communications asking him to support the woman-suffrage amendment. In this letter, Mr. Glass says:

"I cannot conceive of any circumstance that would make me willing to vest the Federal government with power to deal with the question of suffrage in the State. The Federal Constitution I think wisely left the question with the respective States, and it was due to this fact alone that the very civilization of the South survived the frightful period of reconstruction.

"If Virginia or any other Southern State, with its complex social conditions, desires to enact equal suffrage, or universal suffrage, or any kind of suffrage within the limitations of the Fifteenth Amendment it has ample power under the Constitution to do so.

"I am utterly and eternally opposed to giving any combination of Northern and Western States, with their different social fabrics, the right to say what shall be the conditions of suffrage in Virginia. Therefore, I shall never vote for or favor any proposition to alter the Federal Constitution on this subject, except to repeal the Fifteenth Amendment if it should ever become practicable."

GREAT IDEAS OF GREAT MEN.

It was Hampden who established in the English mind the idea of liberty; Cromwell, who established the idea of toleration; Blake the idea that Britain must be the master of the seas; and Milton the idea of the liberty of the press; and we take the liberty to state that John A. Marshall & Bro., are the best prepared to serve the people this spring with the latest and finest footwear on the market. In addition to other styles their Buster Brown shoes for children, Misses and Grown-up girls are claiming the attention of the buying public. For men their styles are the real thing.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF RESIDUE.

Trustee's sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House' tract of land located in Mt. Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax County, Va., containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback, deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohren, at its March term, 1913, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria, Virginia, at the above described property.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximateely twenty-seven hundred (2,700)acres,of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation or Horsemanship. The balance between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by the old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

WIFE'S TERRIBLE DISCOVERY.

Finds Dead Body of Her Husband at Undertaker's.

Richmond, April 12.—Ignorant of the fact that her husband had died Thursday night at the City Hospital within a few moments after his admission there, Mrs. C. R. Smith, of Niles, Michigan, walked into the office of Major Werner at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning to ascertain if her husband had been arrested.

Despite the fact that the morning newspapers had chronicled the demise of her husband after he had been found in an unconscious condition in an alley at the rear of a North Ninth street house, the woman, who was well dressed and evidently embarrassed with her mission, told Major Werner, Captain George Pollock and Bertillon Clerk Toler that her husband had been drinking heavily an dthat she feared that he had gotten into trouble.

Prior to her personal appearance at the office she had sent a small boy, who had acompanied her to the City Hall, to make inquiries. Bertillon Clerk Toler at once realized that the man for whom the inquiries had been made was the same who had died at the City Hospital Thursday night. He went where the woman was waiting, and conducted her into Major Werner's office. There she was informed in a manner which still left some doubt in her mind as to whether the man was her husband, that a man had died at the hospital. Detective Sergeant Wiley accompanied the woman in the chief's automobile to Wiley's undertaking establishment. There she recognized the body as that of her husband.

After having been found unconscious in an alley at the rear of 709 North Ninth street about 7 o'clock Thursday night, and having been rushed to the First Police station, Charles R. Smith, of Niles, Michigan, died within a few moments after he was admitted to the City Hospital.

Death was due to heart trouble brought on by excessive drinking.

The identity of the stranger was established from papers found upon his linen.

Mrs. C. V. Gardner, 1211 Duke St., Alexandria, Va., says: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me in 1902, have been permanent, and I haven't needed anything for my kidneys since. I had not suffered very long before I took Doan's Kidney Pills and didn't really know what was the matter, but I got real bad with weakness and lameness through my back. For a few days I couldn't attend to my house work. I had to lie down most of the time, and it was the same when I went to bed at night. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Leadbeater & Co.'s drug store, and the contents cured me."

FARM FOR BOY DELINQUENTS.

Campaign to Raise Needed $10,000 to be Inaugurated in Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., April 12.—The directors of the Norfolk Juvenile Protective Association will meet at dinner at the Fairfax Hotel on Monday night to prepare plans for a three day campaign, in which it is hoped to raise $10,000 necessary to complete the $20,000 necessary for acquiring and opening a boys' farm for juvenile delinquents. The campaign will begin on the following morning and continue until Thursday night, all of the directors working in teams.

There are a number of cases of juveniles that are waiting disposition in the courts, and because there is no place provided to care for these boys the judges are holding them in charge of the matron of the police station. The campaigners propose to show by actual conditions just how badly an institution is needed, and it is believed that little difficulty will be experienced in raising the money.
